

Terms and Conditions

1. Membership Term duration is one calendar year. A term of membership shall commence every year from the 1st of January until the 31st of December.
2. The annual membership fee (€ 40 for families, 30 for individuals, and 20 for students) is collected so that the minimum recurring expenditure of the Verein/Association is met. The application will be processed only after realizing the membership fee transferred to the KCAB bank account.
3. The membership request can be withdrawn by sending a written request within 30 days upon receiving the membership card.
4. Members consent to provide his/her contact information to the Verein/Association and also allow the Verein/Association to keep the information for official purposes.
5. Members consent that the Verein/Association shall be the sole owner of photos and videos taken during any events performed under the association. These could be published as well within the websites or promotion materials created or owned by the association.
6. Children under the age of 10 are not required to be entered in membership cards along with family members. They are also exempt from purchasing tickets to any future events organized by the Verein/Association.
7. The membership card is not transferable under any condition.
8. The Verein/Association is not responsible for any fraudulence under its name and does not comply in offering services like Visa proceedings, Accommodation facilities, etc.
9. Using the Verein/Association's membership for any purposes is allowed only with an official consent from the association's executive committee.
10. Members shall adhere to the terms and conditions enclosed within Bylaws / Satzung (see the additional attachment) of the Verein/Association.
11. As a registered organization (e.V.) under German law, the Verein/Association is required to maintain correct book-keeping and obliged to make a tax declaration at least once every two years. The accounts will be accessible to any member on request.
12. Members agree that these terms and conditions are subject to change with approvals from the KCAB executive committee. Changes shall be communicated to all members within 30 days as and when they occur.